

Contents

Acknowledgements	iii
Introduction	v
Ælf, Ælfsīden, Ælfād, Ælfsogōþa: Elves and Disease in Anglo-Saxon Leechbooks MARTINA LAMBERTI	1
The Fairy Supernatural of Sir Orfeo ANGANA MOITRA	18
Paracelsus, Heinrich Khunrath and Macbeth: An Alchemical Argument NIRANJAN GOSWAMI	35
The Voice of Reason: Archbishop Abbot on the Essex Divorce Case SOMNATH BASU	63
Friedrich Engels and Gothic Marxism: A Fairy-Tale Introduction JAYSON ALTHOFER	77
The Rakshasi in the Bengali Rupkatha Tradition of the Late Nineteenth and the Early Twentieth Century AMRITA CHAKRABORTY	95
City of Spectres: Spectral Spatialities of Calcutta and their Depiction in Bengali Ghost Stories M. D. MAHASWETA	110
Liminal Existence, Decentred Gaze: Atin Bandopadhyay's "Atapurer Bhut" as a Case Study TONISHA GUIN & ANOMITRA BISWAS	127

‘Your morality isn’t the only morality in the world’: The Morality of Life, Death, and Monsters from a Care Ethics Perspective in the Anna Dressed in Blood Series SHELBY RAGAN	143
Monstrous Rage: Using the Supernatural to Navigate Black Horror and Rage CASSANDRA SCHERR	156
The Symbolic Significance of Selected Miracles in The New Testament SHREYASI DAS ROY & ABIGAIL SIMONE BEAUCASIN	171
Locating God in the Time of Epidemic: John Donne’s Plague MADHUBRATA BHATTACHARYYA	182
“Something was creeping and creeping”: An Interview with S. T. Joshi on Lovecraft’s Craft, the Weird and the Bizarre INTERVIEWED BY HEMALATHA SRIDHAR	190
Contributors	200